PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS AND STRUCTURE
BA IN ECONOMICS, POLITICS, AND SOCIAL THOUGHT

FALL SEMESTER

1* Core Course: Greek Civilization
   Principles of Economics
   International Studies and Globalization
   Elective

2 Core Course: Renaissance Art and Thought
   Microeconomics
   Political and Moral Thought
   Elective

3 Core Course: Origins of Political Economy
   Ethics and Economics/Philosophy and Society
   Econometrics/Quantitative Methods in Social Sciences
   Elective

4 Thesis Module
   Research Colloquium
   Choice, Resources, Development/Civic Engagement and Social Justice
   Elective

SPRING SEMESTER

Core Course: Medieval Literature and Culture
   Mathematics for Economics
   Comparative Politics
   Elective

Core Course: Early Modern Science
   Macroeconomics
   Policy Analysis
   Statistics

Core Course: Modernism
   Behavioral Economics/Public Policy
   Global Economics/Advanced Topics in Global and Comparative Politics
   Elective

Thesis Module
   Elective

*BA students complete the Language and Thinking Program prior to their first semester.