Students with a GCE/GCSE/A Levels must meet the following requirements in order for their qualification to be considered equivalent to the Abitur.

- 4 examination subjects; 3 at Advanced Level (A Level), one may be at Advanced Subsidiary Level (AS Level)
- Among the four examination subjects, students should demonstrate the following:
  - One language
  - Math or a natural science subject (biology, chemistry, or physics)
  - One A Level subject related to the intended area of study
  - Students wishing to study economics or social science must have an A Level in Math